25X1 Local Military Information

1. The 4 Regiment of the Enver Division (sic) is based at Permet. This Division is not a part of the Albanian Army, but of the People's Security; it was formerly called the 4 Division of the People's Security. The base of the Enver Division is in Tirana. Its commanding officer is Antzel Gheorgki (sic) who comes from Korce. The men who compose this Division are paid and enjoy the complete confidence of the regime.
2. A part of the troops of the Enver Division are guarding the oil wells of Kusove.
3. Forces belonging to the Enver Division are guarding the border from the village of Upper Vlacho to Konispol and also the coast sector from Konispol to Vlone.
4. The 4 Regiment of the People's Security of Permet, commanded by Haidar Arantisi, covers the border section from Upper Vlacho to the international point where the Greek, Albanian, and Yugoslav borders meet and the succeeding sector of the Albanian-Yugoslav border.
5. The 741 Battalion of the same regiment is based in Leskovik; it guards the sector from Upper Vlacho to Erseke.
6. The 14 Battalion of the same regiment is based in Dovell. It guards the Erseke-Viglista sector.
7. The 3 Battalion of the same regiment covers the border sector of the Albanian-Yugoslav border within Korce Province.
8. There is a Soviet lieutenant colonel at the headquarters of the 4 Regiment. There are also Russian officers of lower rank assigned to the smaller units of the 4 Regiment.
9. The army forces encamped in the city of Leskovik have recently been reinforced with heavy anti-aircraft artillery. Two pieces have been mounted in Leskovik, and two more in Tsaritsovo.
